We are pleased to invite you and your organization to join us at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights' 5th anniversary gala on Sunday, November 3, in Bonnie & John Buhler Hall at the Canadian Museum for Human Rights.

The evening's theme is the future of human rights in Canada and will feature a special address from The Right Honourable Beverley McLachlin, the first woman to serve as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Canada. In addition to being a trailblazing jurist, she is also a best-selling author and the recipient of many honorary degrees. Ms. McLachlin will offer her unique perspective on emerging human rights issues, changing human rights discourse and expanding human rights in Canada.

Guests will also be welcome to visit the Museum's Protecting Rights in Canada gallery, which shares the journey toward the legal protection of rights in Canada. The gallery currently displays an original version of the Proclamation of the Constitution Act, 1982, signed by Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and former Prime Minister Rt. Honourable Pierre Elliott Trudeau. The Proclamation is one of Canada's most important constitutional documents, making the Charter of Rights and Freedoms possible and enabling so many of the legal rights we have today.

The Museum's outstanding education programs, events and exhibitions have been successful for the last 5 years since we opened. Through the Museum, we can take action to realize a future where all human beings live free and equal, in dignity and rights. There are several ways to support the Gala, as an individual, a corporation or as a foundation by:

- Sponsoring the event
- Purchasing tables or tickets
- Purchasing an advertisement in the commemorative program

Please review the attached information and select the participation options that most appeal to you.

We look forward to welcoming you at this special event. We will be in touch with you soon to discuss your support.
